

Instruction at its Best: Techniques & Strategies for Positive Impact on Achievement

A focused training on the researched strategies and techniques for instructional impact

A Two-Day Learning Experience
(Lunch Included)

Date: November 8 – 9, 2018

Time: 9:00am – 3:30pm

Location: West Plains Senior High School Library
602 E Olden St, West Plains, MO 65775

Cost: $240 for SMCAA Members
$320 for Non-Member Districts

Dr. Janie Pyle has been dedicated to the work of advancing the teaching profession for the last 40 years. Her focused expertise includes Instructional leadership, curriculum development, effective instruction, and teacher retention through teacher leadership and motivation.

Janie has been published in Larry Ainsworth's newest book, Getting Started with Rigorous Curriculum Design, and was the subject of an article on Central Office Leadership in the October 2014 edition of the Journal for Staff Development.

- What are the four researched areas of Impactful Teaching?
- What is the difference between a technique and a strategy and when do you use them?
- How can data inform and change instruction and what is the best data to collect and use?
- What is "Rigor" and how can it be accomplished it through questioning?
- What are the components of a "Quality" lesson?

These sessions are perfect for Administrators and Teachers alike!