1:15 – 3:45pm: The role of the Curriculum Leader in 2022

The expectations of the Curriculum Leader have changed post-pandemic and as we move forward to MSIP 6. We will discuss the possible new responsibilities of your position as it relates to the state/federal direction and your vision for your schools. Be prepared for discussion with your colleagues by bringing any current planning documents you may have in place or are in the process of adjusting.

Day Two: Monday, July 18th

8:15 – 9:00am Breakfast

9:00 – 10:00am: What is the DESE view as we move forward? What is the role of state assessment in this view? Updates on MSIP 6 and Competency Based Learning.

Lisa Sireno, Assistant Commissioner, Office of Quality Schools

In this session, Lisa Sireno will be on hand to share her thoughts about the DESE view for 2022 and beyond regarding MSIP 6, CBL, and assessment. Be prepared to compare and contrast ideas and thoughts of your planning, your position, and your vision with what will be shared by our state leader.

10:10-11:40 am: A Curriculum Handbook: Clarity in What to Provide for a Quality Curriculum Program in your District

We will finish the morning with an overview of a Curriculum Handbook Framework and the useful content that will provide clarity and direction to your curricular process. We will provide a sample table of contents and an outline of a handbook development process. We will also provide samples and ample opportunity to discuss your current program and contents with your colleagues.

11:45 – 12:45 Lunch

1:00 – 3:00pm: Curriculum Review and Evaluation: Process and procedure to address a quality curriculum

We will spend the afternoon reviewing the Five Standards for Curriculum Evaluation (Logan) and how these standards can be used in review and to guide your work of your curriculum handbook. We will provide a rubric for both review and evaluation.
