

Champion Teaching

A focused program on the researched techniques of Doug Lemov in his book:

Teach Like a Champion 2.0

Two-Day Session

(Lunch & Materials Provided)

Participants are encouraged to purchase the Book Teach Like a Champion 2.0
and to bring it with them to the session

Date: June 17-18, 2019

Location: Howell Valley R-I
6461 State Route ZZ
West Plains, MO 65775

Time: 9:00-3:30

Fee: $275 SMCAA Member; $375 Non-Member

Registration: https://www.smcaa.org/regforms/workshops/20190617_Champion_Teaching.asp

Registration Deadline: June 3, 2019

Dr. Janie Pyle has been dedicated to the work of advancing the teaching profession for the last 40 years. Her focused expertise includes Instructional leadership, curriculum development, effective instruction, and teacher retention through teacher leadership and motivation.

Janie has been published in Larry Ainsworth's newest book, Getting Started with Rigorous Curriculum Design, and was the subject of an article on Central Office Leadership in the October 2014 edition of the Journal for Staff Development.

- What is Champion Teaching?
- What is the difference between a technique and a strategy?
- Which techniques are proven to have the greatest impact?
- What is "Rigor"?
- What are the components of a "Quality" lesson?
- Is Champion Teaching right for your school?

Useful techniques and skills that can be used the next day!