

SMCAA - Champion Teaching: Train the Trainer

8:45am Welcome/Facility

DAY ONE: Champion Teaching Basics: The Super Seven/Ethos/Cohesion

8:45 – 10:00am Session One: Why Champion Teaching? Why Your School?

We begin with a basic overview of Champion Teaching and the purpose and goals for the learning. We will discuss your current school(s) situation and how Champion Teaching can fit within it. We will discuss how Champion Teaching techniques can promote equity and access to learning for all students through the focus on techniques rather than strategies.

10:15 – Noon Session Two: Super Seven and Skills to create predictability in the classroom

We will study the Super Seven-the identified techniques that have been proven to have the greatest effect on student achievement and behavior in the shortest amount of time. We will review rigor, quality, culture, and communications. We will identify the techniques used to create predictability in the classroom.

Noon – 12:45pm Lunch Time

12:45 – 3:00pm Session Three: Ethos (Classroom Culture) and Cohesion (Relationships)

As we review what Ethos and Cohesion should look like in the classroom, we will study how we can use classroom space to enhance learning through the use of Anchor Charts. Come prepared with some ideas!

DAY Two: Champion Teaching Basics: Fabulous Five, Lesson Planning and Execution

8:00 – 10:15 Session Four: What Does Strong Instruction include? What Does Strong Instruction Look Like?

Today we begin by exploring the Fabulous Five techniques we can use to strengthen our instructional skills and promote visible student active engagement. We will review and critique sample lesson plans, write a basic lesson that will focus on both teacher and student responsibility during learning.

10:30 -11:45 Session Five: Let's Focus on Our Training Skills!

Champion Teaching requires a set of skills all of their own. In this session we will focus on the skills needed to train others in this work and what your training should look like to promote your credibility as a Champion Teacher trainer. We will break into groups that will create short five minute simulations on chosen techniques to prepare trainers to teach Champion Teaching to their colleagues. Be ready to teach others!

11:45 – 12:30pm Lunch Time

12:30 – 2:15pm Session Six: Teaching Simulations and Ideas on Planning your Champion Teaching Journey

We will complete any remaining training simulations, the move right into planning your work with Champion Teaching. We will respond to a series of questions designed to provide you the tools to prepare your school(s) for their learning journey.

2:30 – 2:45pm Conclusion: Stick with us for a short evaluation along with question-and-answer opportunities.
