

Curriculum Training: Level I Curriculum Basics

We have a written curriculum, but is it giving us everything we need? During this introductory webinar we will explore what it means to not only have a guaranteed and viable curriculum, but also to have a curriculum that is credible in the eyes of our staff and community. We will explore what needs to be included in a written curriculum for it to be user friendly and look at different templates to help make the process easier. Topics covered during this workshop include the following:

- What it means to have a guaranteed, viable, and credible curriculum
- Shared vocabulary and why it is necessary
- The components of a well-written curriculum
- The connection between curriculum and assessment
- Curriculum Evaluation
- Planning guides versus Scope & Sequences
